

A diagram illustrating a hierarchical structure. At the top, there are four identical gray squares, each containing the word "Child" in bold black text. These squares are arranged horizontally with equal spacing between them. Below the squares, centered horizontally, is the word "Parent" in bold black text. This layout suggests that the four child nodes are associated with or derived from a single parent node.

Child

Child

Child

Child

Parent